The Firehouse Ghosts: October 25, 2008, 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m.

The Denver Firefighters Museum invites the whole family to bring their sleeping bag on October 25th and learn why things still go bump in the night at haunted old Fire Station No. One. This old fashioned sleep over in a haunted fire station built in 1909, is anything but old fashioned. The evening will open with a traditional firehouse spaghetti dinner and progress with spooky movies, titles early on such as Casper the Friendly Ghost, and get spookier as the night wears on. Ghost stories, children's crafts, Halloween cookie making, and a behind the scenes tour by flashlight of the basement haunted house will conclude the evening. For those that survive the night, a continental breakfast will be served. The evening is designed for all ages and costumes are encouraged! Children under 18 must be accompanied by a guardian. Reservations are requested and tickets are $25.00 per person prepaid. 6:00 p.m. Saturday to 8:a.m. Sunday morning.

For more information please contact the Denver Firefighters Museum, 1326 Tremont Place, Denver, Colorado, 80204, or call 303-892-1436. The Museum is open year round Monday through Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. General admission is $6.00 for adults, $5.00 for seniors and students with identification, and $4.00 for children 1 to 12. Children under 1 and members are free.
